

Cherry Monroe, If You Go

This is our last goodbye

In our darkest hour I lay my hands down by your side
The warmth of your skin gives me chills to what we'll leave behind
This is our last kiss
I will miss everything
My hearts racing please wake me up from this nightmare
Wake up from your sleep

If you go, know that I go too
'Cause if you die, I die too
When you shake, I shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake for you
'Cause if you die, know that I die too

I whisper in your ear a ballad from a broken man
I squeeze your hand tight as an ode to empty promises
My heart bleeds
It kills me
Don't leave me by myself
Torn apart from the start
Forever I promise there will be no one else

If you go, know that I go too
'Cause if you die, I die too
When you shake, I shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake for you
'Cause if you die, know that I die too

If you go, know that I go too
'Cause if you die, I die too
When you shake, I shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake, shake for you
'Cause if you die, know that I die too, I die too

If you go, know that I go too
If you die, know that I die too
