

Chesney Kenny, A Woman Knows

Chesney Kenny

Everywhere We Go

A Woman Knows

She can't put her finger on a single lipstick stain

Perfume doesn't linger in a shirt

There's no matchbook in his pocket with a number and a name

So why does she still hurt

'Cause a woman knows, when there's another woman

She can feel her, all over her man

A woman knows, when there's another woman

You can't fool her, don't try to think you can

What she don't know won't hurt her that's what he tells himself

So he hides his cheatin' heart inside his chest

He thinks he's put one over, but what he doesn't know is

He's already confessed

'Cause a woman knows, when there's another woman

She can feel her, all over her man

A woman knows, when there's another woman

You can't fool her, don't try to think you can

A woman knows, when there's another woman

You can't fool her, don't try to think you can
