It Wouldn't Hurt To Have Wings

Don't get me wrong, I'm doing all right

Can't you see I'm OK

I'm not at home all alone every night

I'm out here dancing old memories away

But it wouldn't hurt to have wings

To lift me above all the pain of the past

And your mind-wrecking love

They say time can fly like a magical thing

But it sure wouldn't hurt to have wings

I don't see things like love any more

The rose-colored glasses are gone

I won't be fooled like I was before

I'm learning now how to fly on my own

But it wouldn't hurt to have wings

To lift me above all the pain of the past

And your mind-wrecking love

They say time can fly like a magical thing

But it sure wouldn't hurt to have wings

I'm gonna fly like an eagle

And rise above it all

But it wouldn't hurt to have wings

To lift me above all the pain of the past

And your mind-wrecking love

They say time can fly like a magical thing

But it sure wouldn't hurt to have wings

No, it sure wouldn't hurt to have wings
