Somewhere Out There Tonight

Well I'm slippin' on my old party clothes

Wondering if they're still in style

Ain't had 'em on

Since you've been gone

And that's been along long while

And I wonder if these old dancing shoes

Will they still feel right?

Guess I'll never know

Unless I go somewhere out there tonight

Been livin' alone

Since you've been gone

Hoping you might return

And I've yet to let

A stranger in my door

But I'm feeling more willing

Than ever before

Oh I wonder if I'll feel out of place

Should new arms hold me tight

Guess I'll never know

Unless I go somewhere out there tonight
