

Chevelle, Rejected

Found something mindless, I can't navigate
Making for me I wanna be

Don't always keep a finger on the pulse
Maintain our feasibility

Cuff me for any cause, what you'd make
Lending indeed to purity

Line off the prospects that I think would take
You know you have to lose your head

And inability
Remains protected
The company I keep
Won't let me ever be rejected

And inability
Remains protected
The company I keep
Won't let me ever be rejected
