Cheyenne Kimball, Didn't I

I feel a little bit jaded today
I did this to myself I wonder why
A little bit faded away
I had enough of your alibis
Did I ever matter to you?
Did you ever worry?
Do you think of me at all?
Cause your the one that made me fall

And you tell me
Oh woah
Give me just a little bit of it
Oh woah
Give me just a little bit of your love
Didn't I wait all day for you?
In the pouring rain
And I died a little when you walked away
And suppose you never cried
Didn't I, didn't I
Give a little more than you could take
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I

I feel a little bit sorry for you
Do you really think I should apologize?
I never thought you'd be untrue
I see it when I look in your eyes
And now you wanna say sorry oh
But I wanna goodbye did you think of me at all
Cause your the one that took the fall

And you tell me
Oh woah
Give me just a little bit of it
Oh woah
Give me just a little bit of your love
Didn't I wait all day for you?
In the pouring rain
And I died a little when you walked away
And suppose you never cried
Didn't I, didn't I
Give a little more than you could take
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I

Summer rain wash away
And I'mgonna be ok
All the pain gone away
Find a way make a change
Tomorrow brings another day
For you and I to love
For you and I to walk away yea
To walk away

Oh woah
Give me just a little bit of it
Oh woah
Give me just a little bit of your love
Didn't I wait all day for you?
In the pouring rain
And I died a little when you walked away
And suppose you never cried
Didn't I, didn't I
Give a little more than you could take
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I

No no no no

Didn't I, didn't I
Give a little more than you could take
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't I

No oh
