

Cheyenne Kimball, Too Good For You

I'm watching the rain fall down as my head spins around
As I'm thinking of you
Yeah, yeah

I'm feeling the pain run through my veins, I can't hear a sound
And I am so confused
Yeah, yeah

Chorus:

Woah, cuz you were never the one to take that away
So can ya hear me say
Hey don't misunderstand me baby
And hey, you got nothing to prove
And hey, I'm not trying to hurt ya now baby
It's not that you're too bad for me
I'm just too good for you

Don't you try to hide from me cuz I can see
That you can't escape the truth
Yeah, yeah
I'm falling off of the edge
I'm screaming through my head and now I can't breathe
Are you just afraid to lose
Yeah, yeah (yeah, yeah)

Woah, cuz you were never the one to take that away
So can ya hear me say
Hey don't misunderstand me baby
And hey, you got nothing to prove
And hey, I'm not trying to hurt ya now baby
It's not that you're too bad for me
I'm just too good for you

(just too good)

Hey don't misunderstand me baby
And hey, you got nothing to prove
And hey, I'm not trying to hurt ya now baby
It's not that you're too bad for me
I'm just too good for you

(Hey, yeah, yeah oh)
Hey, don't misunderstand me baby (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And hey you got nothing to prove (got nothing to prove)
And hey, I'm not trying to hurt you now baby (yeah, yeah, oh yeah)
It's not that you're too bad for me (it's not that too bad for me)
I'm just too good for you
