

Chicago, Already Gone

Baby, I may never know exactly what you're feelin'
But I've seen you on another roll
Maybe I'm that last to see the glances you've been stealing
What you're looking for is takin' its toll

No guarantees, so baby please
Got to keep the sugar coating to yourself
Either stay with me, or set me free
Gotta let me get myself off the shelf

I've been here, it's all clear...
You've already gone
And I know
'Cause it shows
You're already gone!

And you're already gone
Down the road
All on your own
Check please, Louise
What did I expect?

And you're already gone
Down the road
Ain't nobody home
Check please, new squeezev Thank you very... NEXT!

And so, now, we find ourselves
Exactly where we started
Tryin' to fall in love with somebody else
Don't know how to play this game
And not be broken-hearted
And I can't believe the lies I'm gonna tell

Don't lie to me, Pinocchio
Gotta keep the sugar coating to yourself
Baby, stay with me or let me go
Gotta let me get myself off the shelf
You can't hide, down inside
You're already gone!

I'll be fine in my mind
You're already gone!

And you're already gone, down the road
All on your own
Check please, Louise

What did I expect?

And you're already gone, down the road
Ain't nobody home
Check please, new squeeze
Thank you very... NEXT!

And you're already gone, down the road
All on your own...
Check please, new squeeze
What did I expect?

And you're already gone, down the road
All on your own...
Check please, new squeeze
Thank you very... NEXT!

And you're already gone, down the roadv All on your own...
Check please, Louise
What did I expect from you
Baby, baby, baby

And you're already gone, down the road
Ain't nobody home
Check please, new squeeze
Check please!

I wants to thank you all very... NEXT!
