

Chicago, Free

I just want to be free
I just want to be free
I want to be free from all the hurt
I want to be free from all the pain
I want to end these lonely hours
I want to end these lonely days
I just want to be free
I just want to be free
I just want to be free
I just want to be free
I just want to be free
