

Chicane, Love On The Run (Radio Edit)

Like love on the run there will be tomorrow
the stars and the sun every beam I'll follow Together we're dancing all night long together we're dancing on and on The sound of the drum keeps my soul depending
each day and each night and its never ending
together we're dancing on and on

the stars and the sun every beam I'll follow
Together we're dancing all night long
together we're dancing on and on
The sound of the drum keeps my soul depending
together we're dancing on and on and on..... the sun...

cause I believe now and then...

If you could look into the sun again,
cause I believe now and then...

On the run (3x)
