

Chicane, Way I'm Feelin'

As I stood there empty men all around me
Got to get to ??
Came a warning
No disguise
Just a calling
For you to reappear
To reappear

And did you feel like letting go
The man inside who has a right to know
Don't walk away
There's so much to say
Just come back and stay
You'll crash and burn someday
It's the way I'm feeling
It's the way I'm feeling

Like a whirlwind
Message came tried to tell me
To open up my eyes
You would tell me
The part again
You would break me 'til you realize
Will you realize?

Did you feel like letting go
The man inside who has a right to know

Don't walk away
There's so much to say
Don't walk away
You'll crash and burn someday
It's the way I'm feeling
It's the way I'm feeling
It's the way I'm feeling
Don't walk away
You'll crash and burn someday
It's the way I'm feeling

Don't you ever walk away
Don't you ever walk away

Don't walk away
There's so much to say
Don't walk away
You'll crash and burn someday
It's the way I'm feeling
It's the way I'm feeling
