

Chico DeBarge, Smile

Reflection of the mind
Beauty of smile>Hello (hello)
Warmness of a soul, expressed through a physical divine
Soft but strong, hold on...

[chorus:]

Show em how to smile. Share your own lovin ways, let your love come out
The greatest gift in the world, more precious than gold or pearls.
A smile.

To all the queens in the ghetto, your love is true and royal
Taught well and wise to the streets
Just looking for a little peace now
We will rise, we will shine
Justice in a little time
Speak to every one in reach
Compliment, improvise and teach
Worth more than this world can give
Shorty show em how to live.

[Chorus]
