Bed Of Razorz

I see the candle light burning in your Eyes,flaring up my eyes in flames
On this pitch-black summer night...
Of passion and pain

(Chorus:)

The razor caressed my flesh and my arms
Turned red. I feel your vast desire
Years of pain are flowing down my arms.
Sweet, red, warm stream I drink
To make you released
Give me your hand,
Let me make you feel the ease
In the bed of razorz we bleed together..

I feel the fire burning in my heart.
I see it sparkling in your eyes
The blaze you feeding more and more

(Chorus)

The razor caressed your flesh and your Arms turned red.I feel your vast desire
Tearing pain is flowing down your arms.
Sweet,red,warm steam I drink
To make you released
Holding your arms,cherish this composure
In the bed of razorz we sleep together
FOREVER....
