

Children Of Bodom, Kissing The Shadows

Hight above yer shadow smiles at me.
Way down below I hear your serenely breathe.

I`m running after you throughout
the valleys of tormented souls,
don`t you be afraid of me only kissing your shadow...
You`re so far away, I can feel your scent,
when I caress your shadow,
and if you truly want I`ll cross the line, I`ll follow.

I`m dreaming my way out from down below.
To get wherever you haunting from, I`ll go...

I`m kissing the shadows you surround me with,
to feel my pain vanishing away from me.
Your touching the shadows I`m surrounding you with,
so together in peace we shall be.

I`m running after you throughout
the valleys of tormented souls,
don`t you be afraid of me only kissing your shadow...
You`re so far away, I can your scent,
when I caress your shadow,
and if you truly want I`ll cross the line, I`ll follow.
