

Children Of Bodom, No Commands

[Stone Cover]

Looking at myself in the mirror, is it me?
'Anybody there?', I ask myself, and look away
Feeling these things in my head controlling me
Hearing strange voices everywhere, calling me

An illusion!

What is happening to me, my hands are working without my will
Is there someone else inside of me, who are you?
I know I'm not dreaming, somebody touched me all the time
My own soul's twisting my body, feeling a tortured pain

No commands! No more! Take orders from you no more
No commands! No more! I'm on my own, don't own me anymore
No commands! No more! Take orders from you no more
No commands! No more! I'm on my own, don't own me anymore

Evil power tried to take me, cannot be the same anymore
Gonna rip you out of myself, out of my mind
You were tortured, ? nerves fired, ? gonna rule me no more
Still I'm scared, cause I can't know, will my soul come back? Come back!

No commands, no more, take orders from you no more
No commands, no more, (laughing)
No commands! No more! Take no orders from you no more
No commands! No more! I'm on my own, don't own me anymore
No commands! No more! Take no orders from you no more
No commands! No more! I'm on my own, don't own me anymore
