

Children Of Bodom, Punch Me, I Bleed

From the reign I've built
Of shame and guilt
I go back and take a look
At myself and what
I have done so far
At the bridge he's lying waiting till light

No choice to go backward
It was okay to us
You're too cold to swing by

Going down I walked my way to hell
Deep to the obscurity
Obliterating you in every way
With my life's insanity

Batter up again
I'm going all insane
Curled up on the floor
Wonder way to kill the pain and
What doesn't kill you
What really makes you pissed off

Sweep back to kill
The pain, make it go away
So long to pack your shot at me
Just when you punch me, I bleed

Going down I walked my way to hell
Deep to the obscurity
Obliterating you in every way
With my life's insanity

[Solo]

No choice to go backward
It was okay to us
You're too cold to swing by

Going down I walked my way to hell
Deep to the obscurity
Obliterating you in every way
With my life's insanity
