

Children Of Bodom, Red Light In My Eyes, Pt2

Pulling the last cry - I was alive
While I'm down in my hatred, weird reich
My god has set you on fire
The day and the darkness light your way

Then bring me fire and insanity
When we reached this final dusk
The cold-blooded eyes are showing butterflies in Your fire
They dance in the fire insane...
Fire - come with me
God's with me

Fire - Your fire...
The early, the one we're all of
...Of the everlasting flame
I'm walking struggling down down down down...

And when you hear me forth to the everlast,

Hear me used to bear dreams, cast in a silent, near fire...
You are bleeding here

Fire - a thorn, sweet, so well... we'll praise the lord to begin it until the others will fall!
But victims are we all...
We will at last destroy human gods
And within us the fire is burning

The dream lives forth
And we're standing strong to fight
And within us the fire is burning

Fire - god bring me
Fire - god's with me
Fire - together forever (forever is whispered)
