Chimaira, Resurrection

Free at last finally tasting happiness 5 years of hell for nothing trapped inside the minds of failures A wise man once said That which does not kill us makes us stronger But we were dead So are we now invincible?

Determination, perseverance, resolution... Resurrection

Final straw underlying ignorance Consumed by greed and hate (and hate) Kept under the feet of tyrants Reality kicked in Raced against time just to start all over Treated like shit Pushed aside and expendable

Determination, Perseverance, Resolution... Resurrection

We have become, So god damn powerful [x6] All the beatings you gave us We will use them against you

Determination, Perseverance, Resolution... Resurrection Free At last Finally tasting happiness Resurrection
