

China Crisis, St. Saviour Square

No sense of pride
No time to care
No problem solved
And no lesson learned

Saint Saviour Square
And no one I know should live there
And no one I know dare not care

No danger of work
No work to be found
No real incentive
To pull this place down

Saint Saviour Square
And no one I know should live there
And no one I know dare not care
Should live there and no one I know
Dare not care and no one
And no one I know

Idle gaze of us all
We are so far removed
This distance created
Is one we all use

Saint Saviour Square
And no one I know should live there
And no one I know dare not care
Should live there and no one I know
Dare not care and no one
And no one I know

The world knows no shame
As we all walk away
No hope is inspired
No progress is made

Saint Saviour Square
And no one I know should live there
And no one I know dare not care
Should live there and no one I know
Dare not care and no one
And no one I know
