

China Crisis, Tragedy And Mystery

Winter displayed in a snow white haze fires burning brightly in the night Tragedy and mystery
open your mind and you will see From waterfalls I hear romantic calls feather in a ray of sunlight Tragedy and mystery
Your world is changing though you cannot see and there's no room for secrecy your world is changing faster everyday and there's no truth in what they say Two by two my heaven made blue life in a world of love and truth Tragedy and mystery
