

China Crisis, We Do The Same

Wake up to the sound of
Young love uprising
Kicking and fighting
In this world of no restraint
Wake up to the sound of
Young love uprising
Kicking and fighting
For they know no other way
Nobody I know should be
Satisfied with nothing
Boxed in and forgotten
In this world of no restraint
We do the same, different ways
No love no shame
We take no blame
We do the same
What's with all the tears
You know nothing ain't easy
I could be wrong, I could be dreaming
In this world of no restraint
Whatcha get for thinking
Work hard and try your best
One hard earned happiness
In this world of no restraint
We do the same
Different ways
No love no shame
We take no blame
We do the same
Despite all claims
We do the same, different ways
We do the same
