

Chixdiggitt, She Gets All The Girls

That's it
There's nothing I can do
Everybody knows it's true

She gets all the girls
She gets all the girls

I've given up
I don't even try
I don't need to tell you why

She gets all the girls
She gets all the girls

I can't explain
I rack my brain
The times have changed
I'm so out of arranged(x2)

That's it
There's nothing I can do
Everybody knows it's true

She gets all the girls
She gets all the girls

I've given up
I don't even try
I don't need to tell you why

She gets all the girls
She gets all the girls

I can't explain
I rack my brain
The times have changed
I'm so out of arranged(x2)

She gets all the Girls(x4)

And She gets all the Girls(x6)

All the Girls...(repeat into fade)
