

Choo Choo Soul, Blue Zoo Train when the sun goes down behind the hill and they lock the gates at night when the crowds are gone and the zoo is still and everything is quiet my steam shoots out my whistle blows come on you alligator too come on you penguins and you monkeys

and hop on all you kangaroos oh well its time for the animals to ride the train come on its time to ride again oh yes its time for the animals to ride the train the blue zoo train
am I red...NO
am i green..NO
am I Yellow...NO NO
i am the blue blue
the blue zoo train
yes im the blue blue blue
