

Chosen Few, Deliverance Has Come

Chosen Few

The Little Things

Deliverance Has Come

CHORUS: Jehovah has spoken, the chains have been broken

Deliverance has come to this house

Sin wont control us, no evil can hold us

Deliverance has come to this house

Were clothed in Jesus righteousness, covered by His blood

We bind the hand of Satan, free the power of love

We know were more than conquerers, soldiers of the Lord

Marching with authority, taking hell by storm

(CHORUS)

Weve put on holy armor, weve got the battle plan

Were already waving banners cause the victrys in our hands

Powers and principalities are falling at our feet

The captain of this armys not familiar with defeat

(CHORUS)

Sin wont control us, no evil can hold us, in this house

Sin wont control us, no evil can hold us, in this house

Deliverance has come to this house
