Chris Brown, Dreamer

What do I do Stop Go Fail Succeed Live Or Die

I just got to believe

Believe... it's worth saving And to get lost Lost in a day dream So why hesitate Take me to another place So far far away So I can get out of the dark High speed Like I'm racing Just like lighting The sky is blazing

But you've lost your way You've been lead astray Are there better days For My Fallen Dreamer Calling The Dreamer Ahh Ahh Ahh A dreamer Calling The Dreamer Ahh Ahh Ahh A dreamer

A Dreamer Ahh Ahh Ahh A dreamer You don't believe no more (you don't even sleep no more) Dream no more

(you don't even dream no more) Dreamer, Dreamer

Why Don't you Just Dream Again

Believe In You You got something to prove You're a star Watch you shine bright On your way to the lime light Finish Line The sweat and tears You can channel all of your fears

Open your eyes Your eyes

And it will be alright
