

Chris Brown, I.Y.A.

I was crazy when I said I didn't love you
From the first time that I ever saw you
The emotions running deep underneath my skin
Sign anywhere for your love, where do we begin
So lay me down
Tell me what I wanna hear
Take me down
There's nobody else I'd rather be with
I wanna wake up in your arms
I wanna wake up in your arms
I wanna wake up in your arms
I wanna wake up in your arms
If my heart is outta place move over
I could've told you how it hurts, could've told you
And now I want you, I can feel it in my heartbeat
It's like a race like I'm running in a track meet
So lay me down
Tell me what I wanna hear
Take me down
There's nobody else I'd rather be with
I wanna wake up in your arms
I wanna wake up in your arms
I wanna wake up in your arms
I wanna wake up in your arms
