

Chris & Conrad, You're The One

Time falls off the face of the earth
Every moment feels just like the first time
You, You found me
And the heavy things that were holding me down
You carried away and I seem to be weightless now
I'm weightless now
There's nothing left to say
Nothing left to do, nothing left to prove
I'm in love with You
You're the one, You're the one
So tell me can You see what You mean to me
That you'll never leave
I'm a fool for You
You're the one, You're the one
The world sure had me trapped under ice
Yeah, I once was numb but now I'm so alive
I'm so alive
Now I don't wanna take one more breath
Without You here to share it with
It's becoming clear, I can't live without You
Oh no
I'm in love with You
You're the one, yeah
You're the one, oh yeah, yeah
So tell me can You see what You mean to me
That you'll never leave
I'm a fool for You
You're the one, You're the one
Oh and I won't see one more sunrise
Without You here with me
I'm in love with You
You're the one, You're the one
So tell me can You see what You mean to me
That you'll never leave
I'm a fool for You
You're the one, yeah
You're the one, ooh yeah
Ooh yeah, You're the one
You're the one, You're the one
Jesus, You're the one
