

Chris Corner, We Rise

Wake me up
Make me a blind believer
You're my Jesus
You're my demon
Wake me up
Promise me your tomorrows
I can see you
The fire to rainbow
So the fire burns
And always burns for war
Forever changes futures
And colors die where flowers grow
We rise
We fall
We fall
I'm so lost
Living in a house of secrets
I know nothing of human weakness
I'm messed up
Shaking the hands that blew it
Foolish, come down
Messiah is strapped in
So the fire burns
And always burns for war
Forever changes futures
And colors die where flowers grow
We rise
We fall
We fall
We fall
We fall
So the fire burns
And always burns for war
Forever changes futures
And colors die where flowers grow
We rise
We fall
We fall
We fall
