Just A Word Away

Plenty of time, to turn out the light

I wanna keep... This feeling inside for little more

It must be a daddy's pride and joy

Little baby boy, is lyin' in my arms with me tonite

Tears in my eyes when I saw you've been born

So much emotion, words cannot form

So I let it be...

Only to say it's you and me, for eternity

I wish you a wonderful life

- Chorus -

And Im only... Im only... Im only...

Just a word away

I will be near, whenever you call

Pick you up, whenever you fall til the day will come

You'll think you're out there on your own...

But you're not alone

Remember that I will be here.

(Repeat Chorus)

La la la la... la la la la la...

la la la... la la la la la la...

Your sister Rosanna's fast asleep

So it's time for me...

To whisper "I love you, goodnight";...

(Repeat Chorus)

Just a word away...

Hmm... Hmm... Hmm...
