

Chris Garneau, Hometown Girls

Hometown girls don't get love likek they should Hometown girls oh boy I wish they would
Red and brown the colors they toss and turn
Hurt and plow stomping feelings that burn
That burn
Hometown girls always have fun on the holidays
Sometimes girls they run away
From the fields, fields where their sheets were burned
Virgin girl who lost it to the man her daddy warned
Her about
Hometown girls need to learn a thing from their mama's burns
Hometown girls get out of it
Boys and booze they don't give a shit
They sting you and the pain stays
You gotta get away
You got some work to do
