

Chris Isaak, Lover's Game

I call you up and tell you that I love you, I call you up and play my lovers game.
Love is just a game to me dear, Love is just a game I'd like to play.
I call you up and tell you that I love you, but really to me every girls the same.
Love is just a game to me dear, Love is just a game I'd like to play.
If I really loved you, then I'd never call you, cause' I know I'd only hurt you.
If I really loved you, then I'd never call you, cause' I know I'd only hurt you,
My love.
I call you up and tell you that I love you, I call you up and play my lovers game.
Love is just a game to me dear, Love is just a game I'd like to play.
