

Chris Jericho, Don't You Wish You Were Me?

Don't you wanna be mad
I see the way you look at me
You envy me and it's killing you
And you know it makes me smile when I look in the mirror
Thinking how good it is to be king
And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
And don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that easy
And don't think you'll ever be
Everything a man should be
'Cause don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreaming, you'll never be me
Too soon you'll be a memory
There for all to see, just illusion
And sometimes it makes me laugh when
I see your reaction knowing that I've become mighty
And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
And don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that easy
And don't think you'll ever be
Everything a man should be
'Cause don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreaming, you'll never be me
[Incomprehensible]
Inside my mind there is a freak
That drives me on past all defeat
You'll never have, you can't instill
The power of my iron will
And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
And don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that easy
And don't think you'll ever be
Everything a man should be
'Cause don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreaming, you'll never be me
The king of all you see
It ain't that easy
Everything a man should be
Keep dreaming, you'll never be me
