

Chris Lake feat. Nastala, If You Knew

Rewrite our history
I know your listening
it's time we all stand up I know the recipe
if chance is all we got
then we must have a lot don't stand behind the line
to stop is to decline
and if you knew the things i see would you give in and let it be the words you speak
your first to hear
so choose them well
make it sincere
and if its true the things i see should i give in and let you be?
the words i speak
I'm first to hear
the choice is mine
to make this clear
identify yourself
with more then what you've felt the memories we keep wont lay us down to rest if faith is all we got
dont stand the line
