

Chris LeDoux, Freedom Ain't Free

You've finally arrived at the goals that you set
You thought that was it boy but you can't quit yet
There's a lonesome old road and it starts at the top
You got one way to go now and it's a mighty fast drop
You know freedom ain't free and glory ain't cheap
The prize that you gained it's a crown you can't keep
When you finally won at vanity's game
Is the title you hold worth the price you paid

You wrote your own song and you lived your own life
But something went wrong cause the feelin' ain't right
Oh you've got it all but the magic's all gone
You're at the top of the world boy but your standing alone
Is the title you hold silver and gold worth the price you paid
You got one way to go...
