Chris Rea, And You My Love

I do not sleep tonight I might not ever The sins of the past have come See how they sit down together

Outside my window Outside my door And I know the reason What they've all come here for

You my love, my sweet, sweet love Are what it's all, because of

Surrender is easy I know you do me no harm But your innocence haunts me The most fatal of charms

Oh I must have done some wrong On a dark and distant day For I know full and well tonight This is how that I must pay

And you my love, my sweet, sweet love Are what it's all, because of You my love, my sweet, sweet love Are what it's all because of
