

Chris Rea, I Thought I Was Going To Lose You

I thought that I was going to lose you
Just for a moment you looked like slipping away
And my only thought was to come with you
There was no other reason to stay
Now I'm sinking in a river of happy returns
Though I'm tired I can do nothing but sigh

For the greatest relief I'm so thankful
As I gaze at your coming-back smile

Lord, I thought I was going to lose you
Yes, I thought I was going to lose you
