

Chris Rea, Long Is The Time, Hard Is The Road

Big old snake o' red tail lights Lookin' for a drain Pretty red, like diamond bright become your ball and chain

If you ever reach the other side, it will never be this way They tie you down with your own high hopes, you better listen what I say

Long is the time, and hard is the road
Everybody lookin' for a place to put down their heavy load

Fat cat screamin' up above 'cause he don't get no second chance He's passing down his reckless fear he kick your chains and make you dance

Dance around his daydream
'till he gets to fly away you find a dagger in your back
you better listen what I say

Long is the time, and hard is the road
Everybody lookin' for a place
to put down their heavy load

Oh, long is the time and hard is the road
Hard is the road

[solo]

Oh, long is the time and hard is the road
Everybody lookin' for a place

Long is the time, and hard is the road.
