

Chris & Rich Robinson, Cursed Diamond

Lose myself, I forget myself
Sometimes I fault myself
Yes, and I might fight myself
Then I, I make amends
And I freeze myself, I rain on myself
Okay, so I stone myself
Well, I might even find myself
Well then again, what happens if I do
So unzip my pride
Said, baby, open me up wide, now
So I can show this to you
I wanna shine for you, baby, I wanna sparkle too
Well, until you're just like a diamond, cursed
We've known it don't get no worse
You know I'll save your time
Your trouble now is mine
Hold me, baby, c'mon, hold onto me me, girl
And I'll laugh with you
I'll laugh with you if you want me to
Roll on me in your splendor, I'll envy your surrender
And show, see I will show you victory
See, I hate myself
But doesn't everybody hate themselves
And so what, I scare myself
It's alright 'cause I tell myself
See I tell myself that it's all, all right in my mind
Well, I let the poison go
'Cause baby, I'll always know
It'll be right there for me
I wanna shine for you, babe, I wanna sparkle, too
See, until you're just like a diamond, cursed
Well, you know it don't get worse
You know I'll save your time
Your trouble now is mine
Hold me baby, hold me, girl
And I'll laugh with you, well, if you want me to
Roll on me in your splendor, I'll envy your surrender
And show, see I will show you victory
Yeah, it's so easy
Well, I wanna shine for you
See baby, I wanna sparkle too
See, until you're just like a diamond, cursed
Well, you know it don't get worse
You know I'll save your time
Your trouble now is mine
Hold me, baby, c'mon hold onto me, girl
And I'll laugh with you, well, if you want me to
C'mon roll me in your splendor, I'll envy your surrender
And show, see I will show you victory, yeah
