

Chris Walker, How Do You Heal A Broken Heart

I can't believe what I just heard, could it be true?
Are you the girl I thought I knew
The one who promised me her love
Where did it go? Does anybody ever know
How do you heal a broken heart
That feels like it will never beat this much again
Oh no, I just can't let go
How do you heal a broken heart
That feels like it will never love this much again
Oh no, tonight I'll hold what could be right
Tomorrow,, I'll pretend to let you go
And were you ever what you seemed
Or was I a fool who fell in love with his own dream
And now you say you want to leave, start a new life today
Those words I thought you'd never say
How do you heal a broken heart
That feels like it will never beat this much again
Oh no, I just can't let go
How do you heal a broken heart
That feels like it will never love this much again
Oh no, tonight I'll hold what could be right
Tomorrow, I'll pretend to finally put it all behind me
Wake and find that I have found
A new life, In my soul
And find that I know how to let you go, you go
How do you heal a broken heart
That feels like it will never beat this much again
Oh no, I just can't let go
How do you heal a broken heart
That feels like it will never love this much again
Oh no, tonight I'll hold what could be right
Tomorrow, I'll pretend to Wake and put it all behind me
And find that I know how to let you go
