

Chris Whitley, Say Goodbye

Once upon a time
You knew where you belonged
But time slips away
Now there's no return
Say goodbye to yesterday
You can kiss the past so long
(Nothing matters anyway)
Say goodbye, it's already gone
Don't let these changes run you round

Who could know tomorrow
Say goodbye and don't look back down
Just say goodbye to yesterday
All will be released
Yesterday deceased
All will be revealed
Let yourself to feel
