

Chrisette Michele, Epiphany

And then it comes to me like an epiphany
It's over, over
It's over, over
Second night in a row you didn't come home
I'm watchin' my phone, waitin' for it to ring
Sitting in the house on the couch with the TV on
All night all alone, every time same old thing
So I think I'm just about over being your girlfriend
I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
Now I wonder what you've been doin'
Where you been sleepin', I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
So you walk in the next mornin'
To find me smilin' like nothin' ever happened
You give me some excuse like you always do
I just kiss your cheek and this is what I tell you
So I think I'm just about over being your girlfriend
I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
Now I wonder what you've been doin'
Where you been sleepin', I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
How many times did I fall for your lies?
How many times did I sit home and cry?
Never questionin' why? Why?
It just came to me like an epiphany
How about I just leave?
So I think I'm just about over being your girlfriend
I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
Now I wonder what you've been doin'
Where you been sleepin', I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
So I think I'm just about over being your girlfriend
I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
Now I wonder what you've been doin'
Where you been sleepin', I'm leavin', I'm leavin'
