

Christ Agony, Athyrium Typha Luciferi

my eyes are the truth
my eyes are deflucing
my eyes are captivating the power of my beauty
is inside of me
the power of my might
the darkness is message for my soul I felt the blasphemous wings
I am ready to die
I am the devil's call
the liberation of unholy blood I am the devil's call
within the crippled dream within the burning mist in my tongue
I am the devilish wind
the lie on the altar
I am the devil's call
my song is my blood
my song
my power stands in my soul in my death
astaroth...
this is the devil's call
