

Christian Bautista, I Want To Be The One

dont wana talk
dont wana drive
dont wana scream out loud how do i make you mine dont wana change your mind dont wana know whos wrong or right dont wana say goodnight im no good with goodbye
so lets ignore the signs that say were running out of time i wana be everything
more than youll ever need
i know
i want to be the one
i would give anything
to be what you want me to be
i know
i want to be the one
dont wana sing
dont wana fight
dont wana go back home
im in no shape to drive dont wana make you cry dont wana leave us far behind dont wana break up to make up one more time
i dont wana live without you dont even think i know how to there must be a way to rewind and start all over again!!!
im no good with goodbyes
