

Christian Bautista, Take A Ride

do you see me come in and hear me whispering your name wish i could be part of your life wherever you may be cause i feel you here inside me right now i can feel the light that shine upon your face the color of your smile i'm longing to embrace chorus:

hold my hand, take a ride we'll fly tonight don't be afraid to come with me you'll be safe and warm trust me once for me to prove that we can reach the stars above.. tonight just this moment only the two of us have you see me smiling looking at your pretty face wish i could have just one kiss i can fight no more with this feeling cause i know now i love you right now i have never felt the way u make me feel cant u hear the beat that speaks within my heart back to chorus
