

Christian Linke, Never mind

I never meant to be a know-it-all
Oh, I know I am wrong
Wanted to be heard and be the one who's there when he's gone
Pushing the line with pointing out you're better off all alone
Even if I call you every night, don't answer the phone
Never mind, I'm going anyways
But you have to know
I don't know how to tell you this phrase
You will be alone
Taking off and I won't come back
I'm leaving this place
So expect me not to come back
I'm flying away
Is there any chance to save the day
Well it's up to you
Had to learn my lesson where to stay
I hope you will too
Never thought I would have had the time
To face all this
You could have asked me to come back
All the time
Never mind, I'm going anyways
But you have to know
I don't know how to tell you this phrase
You will be alone
Taking off and I won't come back
I'm leaving this place
So expect me not to come back
I'm flying away
Never mind, I'm going anyways
But you have to know
I don't know how to tell you this phrase
You will be alone
Taking off and I won't come back
I'm leaving this place
So expect me not to come back
I'm flying away
