

Christian Linke, What I lost

Heartbeat stopping and I just don't know why
And I lose my disguise that keeps me alive
pictures motionless
And I got to confess
I lose my ground
And it's all you My body shakes once again
feeling all at once
sense is going numb
I hear no sounds
but you're everything falling apart
rescue me
I can't breathe
I cannot forget what I lost
what I lost
