

Christian Walz, Loveshift

Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Can't believe me eyes
Could be that I'm a retard
But I just figured out
That romance is the real art
But baby, after all
Think it kinda gives me hope now
Could be that I'm a star
And that I might have the know-how
Now I'm not preaching
Now people listen. We're not working anymore
Chorus:

Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Take your time and think about what you do
'cause nothing's serious and nothing is true
When going gets tough
Then it's breaking up
You bitch and moan you're going too far
I know it's just the way I am too
But nothing's serious and nothing is true
Now I'm not preaching
Now people listen. We're not working anymore
Chorus:

Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Take your time and think about what you do
'cause nothing's serious and nothing is true
Don't treat it like the real art
Nothing is true. Bunnies and no real stars
Nothing is true
Now we're no working

Chorus:
Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Ain't nobody working on the loveshift
Take your time and think about what you do
'cause nothing's serious and nothing is true
