

Christina Aguilera, Dedication

I came into this fame wit' u by my side I'll be leavin wit' u at the other end peace out

thankyou for - the love you gave me and i'll be thankin' you again at the end of the line, whoa, I said please- stay, at the very start, now i say sorry, for all the time we're apart I am trying, trying to help you get there everyday.

I thought that I was failin' I'd lost all of my faith but you told me keep tryin' n' I tried harder everyday and now

I'm here

Doesn't seem so real.. when you remember.. all the screaming and the fighting, and the pain in my heart, when you told me keep tryin' I took a fresh start and look where

I am today.

I thank you
