

Christina Aguilera, We Remain

Now we talk about our wasted future
But we take a good look around
Yeah, we take a good look around
Yeah, we know it hasn't been for nothing
'Cause we'll never let it slow us down
No, we'll never let it slow us down
Every single time the wind blows
Every single time the wind blows
I see it in your face
And in a cold night, there will be no fair fights
There will be no good night to turn and walk away
To burn me with fire, drown me with rain
I'm gonna wake up screaming your name
Yes, I'm a sinner
Yes, I'm a saint
Whatever happens here
Whatever happens here
We remain
