

Christina Grimmie, Absolutely Final Goodbye

You walk into the room like king of the world
Like you could have your pick of all of the girls
There's rumors you've been lookin' all over town
Tryin' to hook someone for jammin' around

I got news for you this time it is over
Boy, I see right through, we are goin' nowhere
I'd rather starve than eat your pretty little lies
Oooh, oooh, oooh

This is my absolutely final
I am really leavin' goodbye
Everytime I take it back you do me over goodbye
Check your back, get in a cab and don't look back it's goobye
Absolutely final I am really leavin' goodbye

I spelt it out, do you get it now?
I spelt it out, do you get it now?
I spelt it out, do you get it now?
Haha, oh I'm tellin' you

At first you showered me with all your attention
Trying to do some things I can't even mention
You wanna have your way and still kiss the girls
But you are livin' in a dream world

I got news for you this time it is over
Boy, I see right through, we are goin' nowhere
I'd rather starve than eat your pretty little lies
Oooh, oooh, oooh

This is my absolutely final
I am really leavin' goodbye
Everytime I take it back you do me over goodbye
Check your back, get in a cab and don't look back it's goobye
Absolutely final I am really leavin' goodbye

This games that you're playin' I play and I'm stayin'
No use in wastin' that clever little mouth
You can't kid a kidder the sweet taste is bitter
Boy, I found you out

I got news for you this time it is over
Boy, I see right through, we are goin' nowhere
I'd rather starve than eat your pretty little lies
Oooh, oooh, oooh

This is my absolutely final
I am really leavin' goodbye
Everytime I take it back you do me over goodbye
Check your back, get in a cab and don't look back it's goobye
Absolutely final I am really leavin' goodbye

Read my lips
